GROWING TOGETHER LEVENSHULME

We are a large resilient community of asylum seekers and refugees and dedicated volunteers centred around our thriving allotment site in Levenshulme, Manchester.
We welcome people from across Greater Manchester to our garden to give and access support and create a relaxing, therapeutic space to enjoy together.

🌱 What We Do:

- Access support, art, a place to meet, learn gardening skills, and relax.

🕒 When:

- Tuesday Morning: 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM (Arrive from 10:00 am)
- Tuesday Afternoon: 1:00 PM - 2:30 PM (Arrive from 12 PM, Lunch is served)
- Friday Morning: 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM (Arrive from 9:30 AM)

Come Join Us!

You are welcome to just come along to one of our sessions. If possible, call / text first to find out more about the Garden and let us know which session you'll be coming to.

For Referrers:

Please email us on: growingtogetherproject@gmail.com and we'll send a simple referral form.

→ Check here for more info: https://growingtogetherlevenshulme.org.uk/

Where?

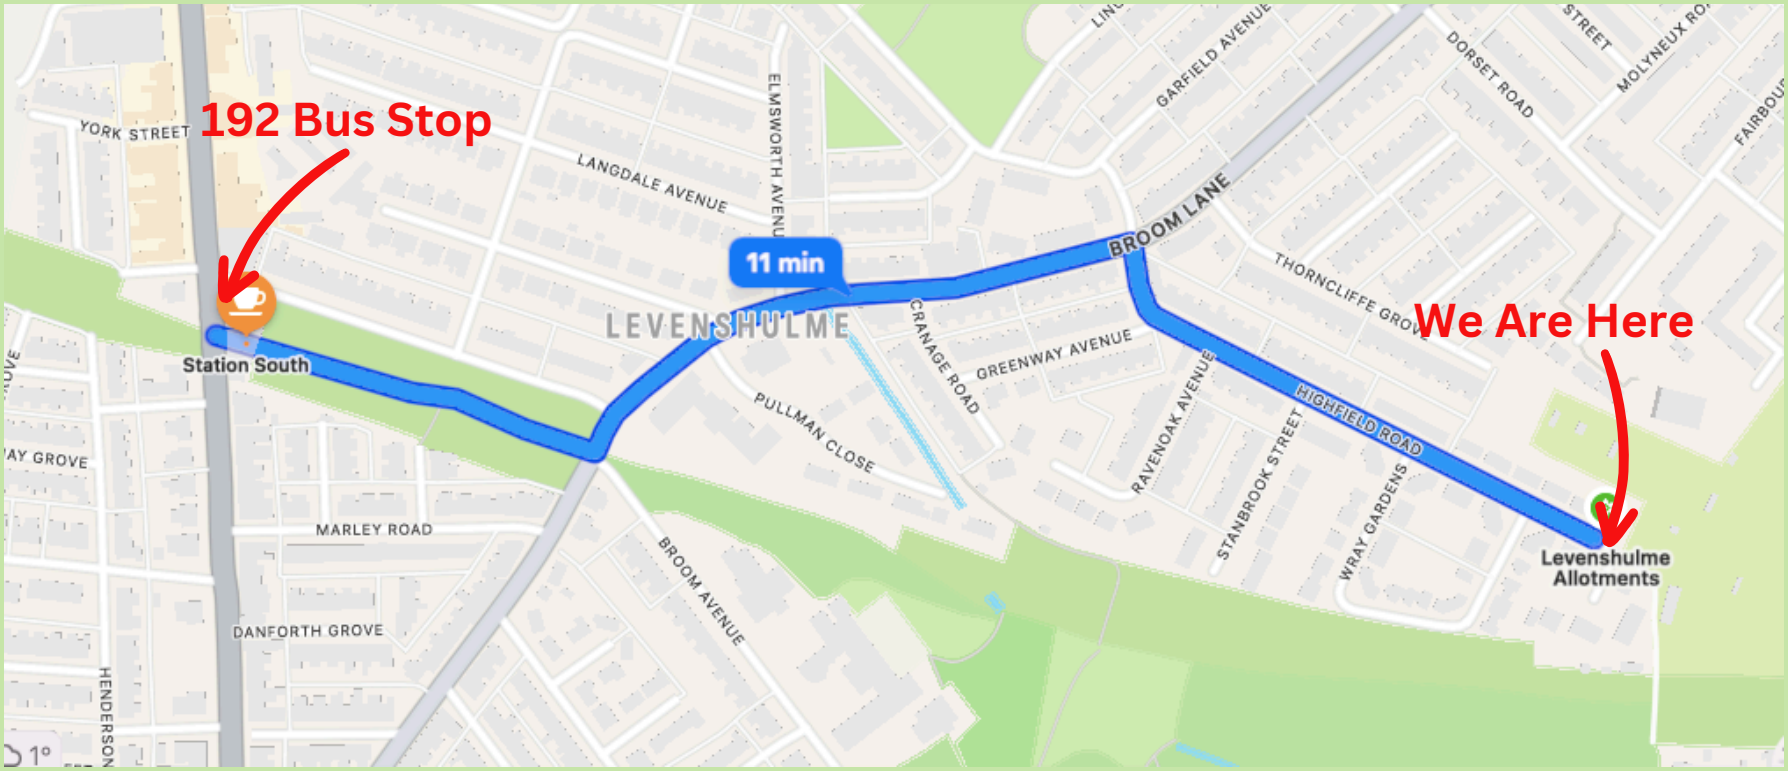
Address: Levenshulme Allotments, Highfield Road, Levenshulme, M19 3JX

If lost or to get the gate open call: 07891 485 066 or 07857 097 828

Directions from 192 bus stop

See map below.

Finding us on Highfield Road: As you walk down Highfield Road the road becomes a track and bends to the right around a small white building. You come to a parking area with big metal gates to the allotments on your left. These might be locked so phone us when you arrive.



Like and Follow us: Growing Together Levenshulme